CAMPFIRE REMINDERS:

A Guide to Campfires and Outdoor Stoves: <http://bcwildfire.ca/Restrictions/StovesCampfires.pdf>

A campfire means an open fire that burns piled material no larger than 0.5 metres in height and 0.5 metres in diameter. A person may light or make use of a campfire ONLY when:

- There are no other restriction in place for doing so;
- Doing so is, and will continue to be, safe;
- Reasonable precautions are taken to ensure the fire is contained;
- The person is equipped with a hand tool, such as a shovel, or at least 8L of water, and attends the fire to prevent its escape;
- The person maintains a fuel break (sometimes called a fire break) – a change in fuel type or condition, typically a strip of land cleared to mineral soil to reduce the likelihood of the fire spreading;
- The person carries out fire control and reports the fire if it spreads beyond the burn area;
- The person ensures the fire is extinguished before leaving the area.
